

Two Years in Solitary Confinement is Two Years Too Long

Rally to End the Indefinite Incarceration of Syrian Refugee Hassan Almrei and Demand Justice for Canada's Secret Trial Five and the Project Threadbare Detainees***

Sunday, October 19, 12 Noon
Metro West Detention Centre
111 Disco Road, Etobicoke

Call (416) 651-5800 or e-mail tasc@web.ca to get a ride or if you can offer transportation to the jail

Rally at 12 noon followed by a walk to the RCMP to present them with a copy of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Their treatment of the Secret Trial Five and the Threadbare 21 (South Asian students still held behind bars despite the RCMP admission they pose no threat) shows they need one.

*The Secret Trial Five are five Muslim men who have collectively been held in Canadian prisons, often in solitary confinement, without charge or bail, on secret "evidence" neither they nor their lawyers are allowed to see, for 104 months. They are Mohammad Mahjoub (October 2000), Mahmoud Jaballah (August, 2001), Hassan Almrei (October 19, 2001), Mohamed Harkat (December 10, 2002) and Adil Charkaoui (May, 2003). Almrei has been in solitary confinement for two full years and has been on hunger strike since Sept. 29 to demand he get heat in his freezing cell.
